Univerza v Mariboru
FAKULTETA ZA LOGISTIKO

Spoštovani!

Digitalna identiteta

Na Univerzi v Mariboru ponujamo različne informacijske storitve do katerih je omogočen dostop z digitalno identiteto, ki omogoča enotno prijavo z istim uporabniškim imenom in geslom.

V roku enega dne vam bo kreirana digitalna identiteta, ki jo lahko v roku 30 dni prevzamete preko akademskega sistema AIPS, kjer pri prvi prijavi vpišete vaš ID študenta in geslo:
KJE: <https://aips.um.si>

ID študenta :
geslo:

Kot rezultat vam AIPS prikaže vaše novo uporabniško ime, ki je večinoma oblike ime.priimek@student.um.si. Kombinacija novega uporabniškega imena in zgoraj navedenega gesla predstavlja vašo digitalno identiteto.

Z geslom ravnajte skrbno in ga v nobenem primeru ne posredujte NIKOMUR! Geslo si po prvi uspešni prijavi z digitalno identiteto čimprej spremenite.
KJE: <https://spremenigeslo.um.si>

Elektronski naslov

Uporabniško ime je hkrati tudi vaš uradni univerzitetni e-poštni naslov, na katerega boste prejemali sporočila Univerze v Mariboru in obvestila s strani fakultete ter iz akademskega informacijskega sistema AIPS.
KJE: https://mail.student.um.si

Koristne informacije

Nasvete o rokovanju z gesli in več koristnih informacij o IT storitvah za študente in diplomante lahko preberete na spodnji povezavi, do katere lahko dostopate tudi hitreje in sicer s pomočjo QR kode.

Respecting the ownership and authorship of others when preparing assignments

It is not sufficient to cite the source only at the end of a paragraph if we have composed the paragraph by paraphrasing multiple works. Sometimes, sources are needed after every sentence or even after every word.

There can never be too many citations from a source—unless we haven't paraphrased or quoted the source!

“UWB RTLSs have been tested in different environments. In all environments, they turned out to be reliable and accurate. The experimental real work environments during processes were medical [34], sports [35,44], dairy house [36] and industry [13]. Some RTLSs have been tested in work environments, but with no processes. Those environments were barn [43], space simulating construction conditions [37], office [38], industrial warehouse [39] and garage [22]. Most of the analyzed tests were done in different types of empty rooms [8,32,40–42]. One test was carried out outside—on the roof of the institute, although RTLSs are primarily designed for indoor use [45] and one was done only with the computer simulation of the system [46].”

Citing sources

- Preventing plagiarism and giving credit for work!
- Quotation vs. citation
- All sources used in-text must also be given in the final reference list and vice versa.
- Every time you use an idea, information, data, picture etc. that is not the direct result of your own work, you have to cite your source. In-text citing means that you cite the source directly in the sentence or paragraph where that information is given

Example of scientific papers

In-text citation: The importance of early childhood education has been widely discussed (Johnson, 2018).

Reference citation: Johnson, E. K. (2018). The role of early childhood education in cognitive development. Child Development Perspectives, 12(3), 165-170. doi: 10.1111/cdep.12292

Example of a book

In-text citation: The history of transportation systems has been shaped by a range of technological advancements (Sperling & Gordon, 2009).

Reference citation: Sperling, D., & Gordon, D. (2009). Two billion cars: Driving toward sustainability. London, UK: Oxford University Press.

Example of a web page

In-text:

(»OBD GPS Logger«, n.d.)

Reference citation: OBD

What happens in the case of detected plagiarism?

The instructor requires an explanation of the completed work, additional references, and further proof of authorship.

Plagiarism in the submission processes of students' written works is considered a violation of examination regulations.

The instructor prepares a record of the plagiarism and submits it to the faculty administration.

Sanctions are provided for in the Regulations on the Assessment and Evaluation of Knowledge at the University of Maribor.

The "most severe" sanction: prohibition from fulfilling obligations at all faculties of the University of Maribor.
